Freshman week . . . Everybody busy like bees — Working together, playing together, worshipping, loving, helping each other.

From loneliness and faltering steps . . .

To responsibility . . .

— where people experience
the beauty of sharing, giving, loving.

— where there is strength in the past, yet a here and now that you can feel and see.

And vision . . .

And hope . . .

You have two choices in life: you can dissolve into the mainstream, or you can be distinct. To be distinct, you must be different. To be different, you must strive to be what no one else but you can be.

—Alan Ashley-Pitt

—where love rules, gladdening the heart.

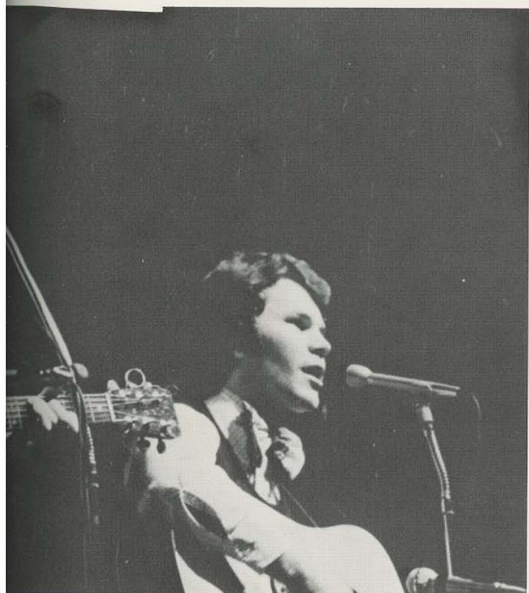

Name talent and Hiwassee students provide Fall quarter entertainment and inspiration

Fall quarter was not all Hard Work, Homework, Professions, Books, Labs, and English Themes. It was a social scene — a "way of living." Club activities provided opportunities for developing close personal friendships. Chapel and assembly programs encouraged social, aesthetic, and spiritual growth.

Crowning of Queen Begins Homecoming Festivities

Homecoming '74 was — things to do, places to go, people to see, dreams fulfilled. It was — registration of grads, open house, awards, dedications, executive meetings, and winners in basketball.

Social life at Hiwassee achieved a well meaning balance because of outstanding activities and events. All this led to the spiritual and aesthetic growth of Hiwassee students and faculty alike.

Hiwassee Royalty Adds Campus Glamor

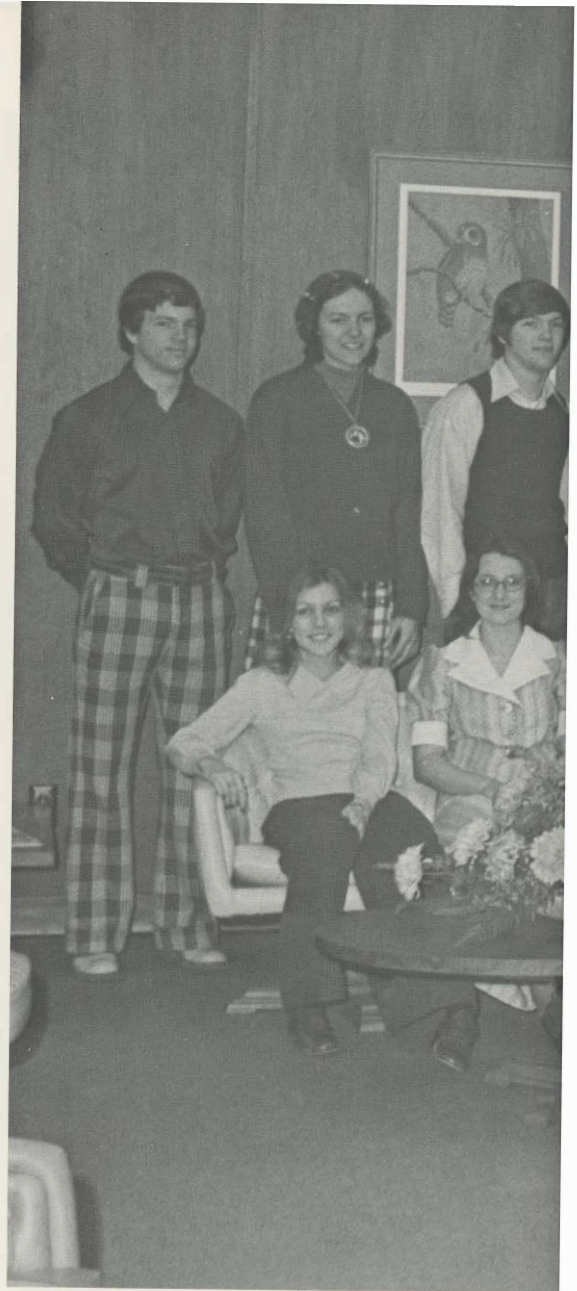

Never before in all Hiwassee history has any event or pageant been as exciting or as glamorous as the 1974 Mr. and Miss Hiwassee Pageant. Before an attentive audience each nominee performed his or her talents. When each had done his best, the final decision was made. With votes received during assembly and the ones acquired during the pageant, Mr. Larry Dial was acclaimed Mr. Hiwassee and for the first time ever, Hiwassee elected Co-Misses Hiwassee, Doris Brewster and Mary Lane. Runners-up were Bobby Drinnen and Chris Dawson. Many thanks to Mrs. Huffman for her enthusiastic help during the preparation for this most exciting pageant ever.

ACADEMICS

Hiwassee students found many doors to open and many roads to travel. Success depended upon goals, determination, and courage. From a wealth of tempting opportunities students chose wisely and unwisely. They dreamed dreams — It was all a part and the place of the becoming —

Tigers host Walters State for Homecoming victory

Hiwassee started the season with a five game winning streak before dropping two in a row to Cumberland and to U.T. Jr. Varsity. Walters State was the third of those five wins. The score was 96-59. The other four wins were over Lindsey Wilson, Freed-Hardman, Sue Bennett, and Cleveland State.

The Tigers then traveled to Lenior City for the Rotary Classic. Hiwassee won the tourney with victories over Cleveland State 70-57 and Roane State 81-72. Johnny Morgan and Mark Begley were named to the All-Tournament Team with Begley voted M.V.P. This left Hiwassee's record 7-2 before the holidays. After the break the Tigers bounced back with an impressive win over K.B.C. 112-72. Hiwassee went on to win three more games against Cleveland, Brevard, and Sue Bennett, before playing in the Marion Tourney. There the Tigers dropped three straight, but Captain Terry Lawerence was named the M.V.P. The next game was at home against Motlow State, which proved to be one of the more exciting to that point in the season, with the Tigers winning 84-73. Hiwassee then notched a victory over Roane State. With two key players out, Morristown College beat Hiwassee 82-76.

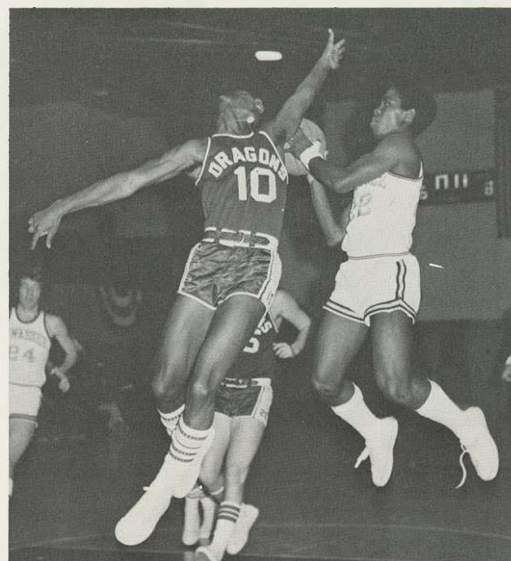

Two Tigers head Rotary All-tourney Team

The Tigers finished the remainder of the season with a 6-3 record leaving the season 19-9. This record was good enough to place Hiwassee in the Regional Tournament to be held in Cleveland in March.

Tigerettes rebuild With freshmen

After losing the better part of his team to graduation, Coach Mitchell was faced with problems. The tigerettes had three sophomores, only one who started last year, returning this season. With eleven freshmen, the Tigerettes posted a 10-12 mark. The Hiwassee Women provided a homecoming victory over Tennessee Temple for their opening game. They then lost the next four out of five before posting wins over St. Mary, Roane State, and Lincoln Memorial. The Tigerettes then split the next four games with wins over Furman and Roane State and losses to North Georgia and Anderson Junior College. The out-classed Tigerettes then lost to U.T.'s women and Belmont before another three-game winning streak. The last four games of the season proved to be disappointments, the Tigerettes losing the last game to Volunteer State by only one point, 56-57.

Hiwassee returns six lettermen

Hiwassee's baseball season depended on the strength of six returning Tigers and fourteen freshman recruits. The Tigers faced tough competition from Motlow State, the division winner for four straight years up to this year, Cleveland State and Roane State, the latter two returning almost all starters.

Intramurals and Sports activities

ORGANIZATIONS

The Organization of Club Presidents worked closely with Dean Huffman to plan campus activities. Clubs were encouraged to engage in constructive projects and to provide the means of expressing student interest and activities in all areas of campus life. Many challenges were presented and good leadership developed among club members as students cooperated to broaden the scope of activities.

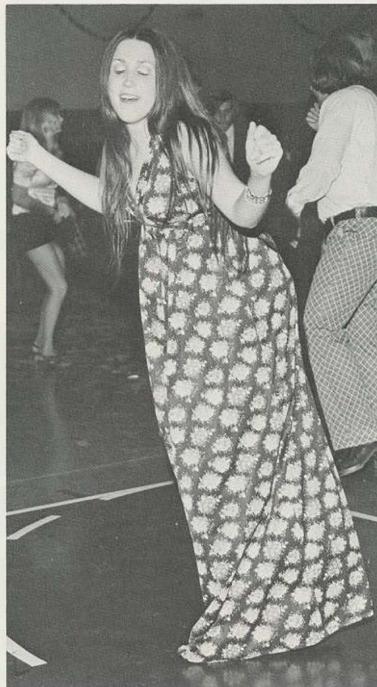

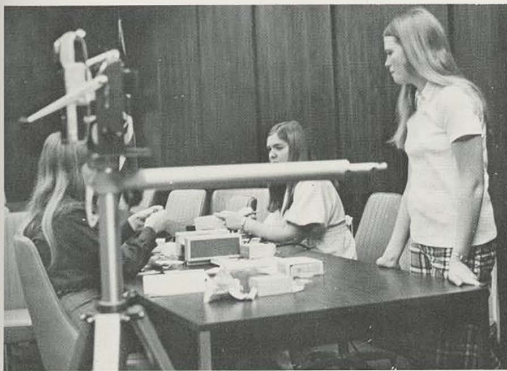

Civinettes enjoy many activities

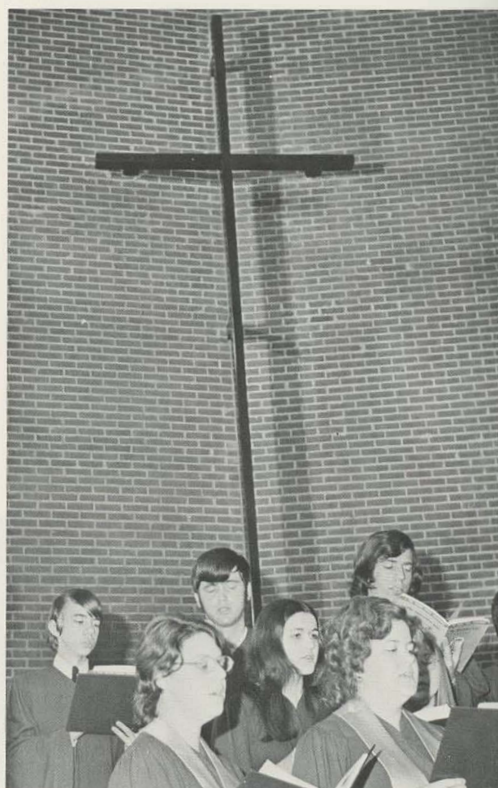

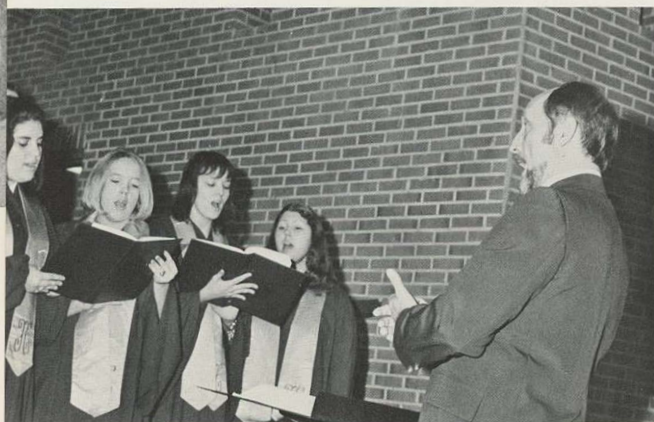

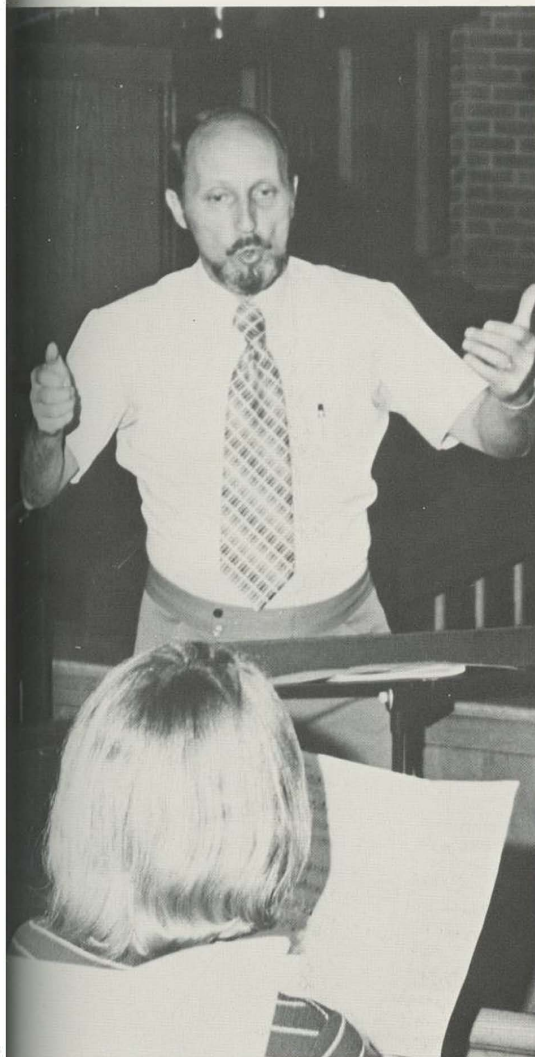

The Civinette Club, an organization for women with objective emphasis on the American-Canadian way of life, good fellowship and high scholarship, proved worthy of its name this year. Its members were found involved in many activities around campus. Highlighted events included the Halloween Carnival; their president, Sondra Mitchell, became Mrs. Donald Coffey; and the club officers and other club members attended the Civitan International Convention during the summer in Orlando, Florida.

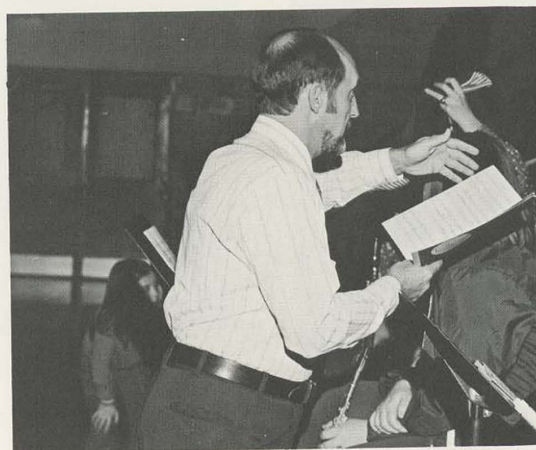

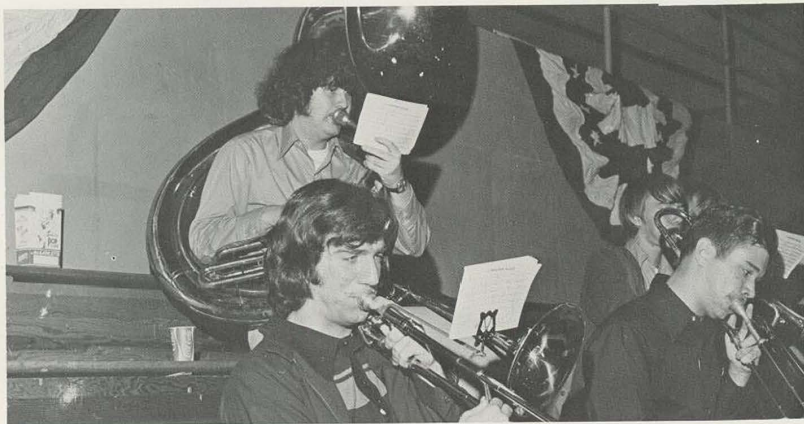

Choir starts Christmas spirit at Hiwassee

The Hiwassee Choir added music to both church on Sundays and chapel programs on Wednesday mornings for the student body. The choir annually prepared for tour and this year, as another project, sold stationery to help buy new robes. The Choir, nothing more than children at heart (left below), performed beautifully (left) under the leadership of Mr. Pickering (right center) and with the accompaniment of Mary Greenhoe (above).

Pep Band and Majorettes Entertain at ball games

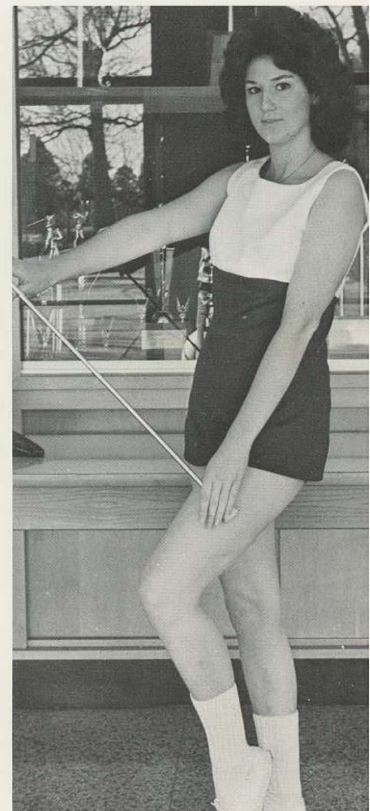

The Pep Band started every Basketball game with the playing of our national anthem, and with the beat of the drum and the blast of the horn the spirit was kept alive throughout the game. The band helped remind every student of his school by the playing of our Alma Mater at each game. During halftime, the band displayed its true talent as the majorettes performed for the crowds. Taking a break from practice, members stood for a picture (left). Mr. Pickering (center left) kept the group well in tune.

The Circle K Club, a service organization for college men, focused on leadership and character-building, along with serving the campus and the community. Once again, club members helped prepare a calendar, with elected members of the student body as calendar girls.

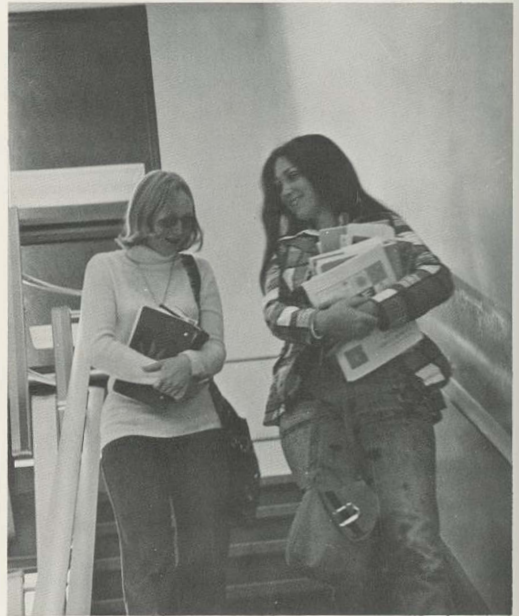

Drama Club prepares
Members for stage productions

The Drama Club consisted of those students and faculty who have experience or interest in the production of live theater. They were involved in all facets of production and provided a strong working force for the full productions by the Hiwassee Players.

This club was an honorary dramatic fraternity for the purpose of providing an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics. It also provided a wider fellowship for those interested in college theatre.

Achievement on campus

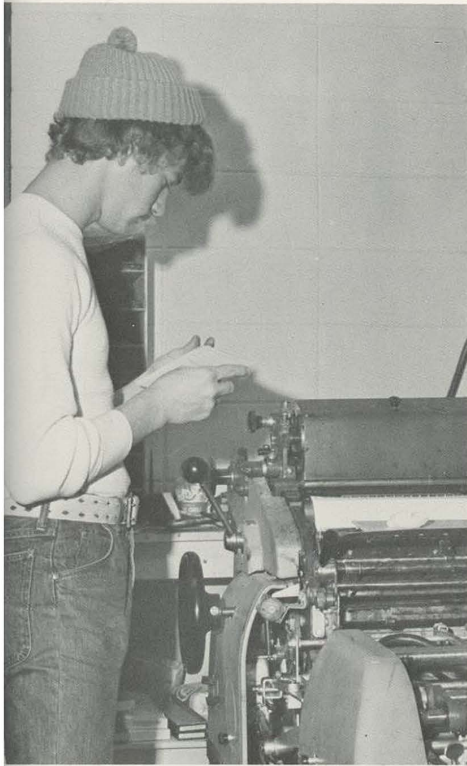

The Phi Theta Kappa Society, a National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, had as its purpose to promote scholarship, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship and good citizenship among the students. As an annual event, the club (center) sponsored the College Bowl, sending several students (top) to Berry College in Georgia for intercollegiate competition.

Collegiate Civitans work
With their sister club with
The community's needs in mind

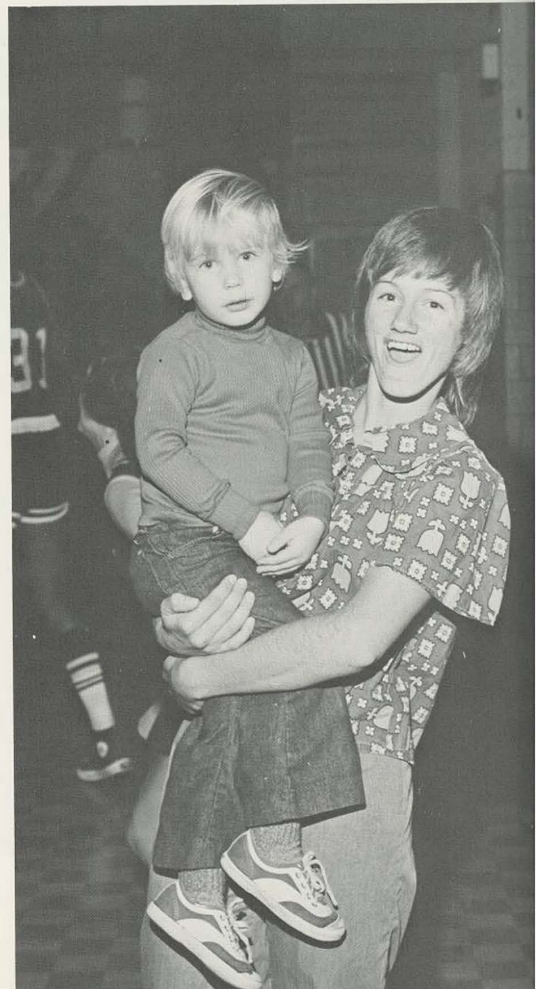

The Civitan club was of service on the college campus and strived to observe the Golden Rule as did its sister club, The Collegiate Civinettes. This year the clubs had even another similarity. Their president, Don Coffey (top center) married the president of the Civinettes. The members (bottom left) were always found hard at work on campus.

Agriculture Club Members work toward Their goal

Membership in this club was limited to those students who were majoring in Agriculture, Pre-Forestry, and Pre-Veterinarian Medicine. Members were often found around the barn (top), and their officers usually dressed their best (above). Their club sweetheart was Kathy Jones (left).

Christian Student Movement celebrates Happiness with a smile

The CSM Council (top right) was responsible for planning and giving the programs on Wednesday evenings. Membership consisted of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and the Student Representative to the Holston Conference Youth Council. All of these were Sophomores. Additionally, two officers were elected from the Freshman class.

Home Economics Club prepares for the future

The Home Economics Club provided an interest group for those majoring in Home Economics or for those who had a strong interest in this area. Members learned to handle two mops at once (left) and to have two cooks in the same kitchen (below).

Organization of International Students works For mutual understanding

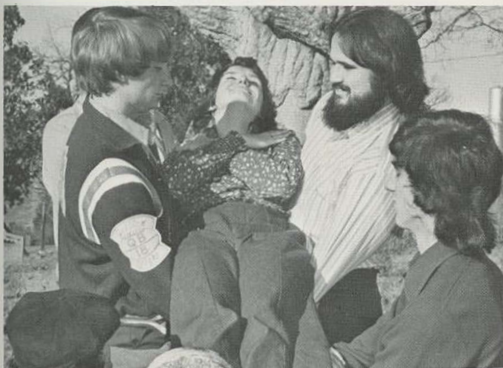

To promote mutual understanding and friendship and cultural exchange between foreign students and American students were the aims of the OIS (top left). Several female members posed in front of a decorated door (above right) at Homecoming, while one member (above left) won this year's talent show. He shared this pose with a friend.

“Hiwassee” staff has a Successful work year

Work, fun, late hours, frustration, fear, excitement, faithfulness, and many more adjectives of this type described the Hiwassee '74 staff (above) this year. Through the work of the Co-Editors, Regina Morgan (top right), and Kathy Giles (left), under the guiding hand of the sponsor, Mrs. Sheets, and with general cooperation of the entire staff, this year's book was completed. Mr. Benton (top right) furnished many of the pictures used.

Student National Education Association prepares its Members for teaching others

The Student National Education Association was organized as a professional association for college and university students preparing to teach. Any student enrolled in the teacher education program was eligible for membership.

The "H" Club (bottom) had as its purpose to promote athletics and a better spirit of sportsmanship. Membership was open only to those who had lettered in basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, or cheerleading at Hiwassee College.

The Hiwasseean

VOLUME XVI, NO. 7

Hiwassee College, Madisonville, Tennessee 37354

NOVEMBER, 1973

Pulitzer Winning Paper

The Hiwasseean, it was announced Thursday, is this year's winner of the Pulitzer prize. The world famous newspaper, well known for its coverage of all events everywhere, was honored by editors from all over the globe at a recent meeting of the E.F.A.O.T.G. Club (Editors From All Over The Globe Club). Horace Greenly, editor of the Monroe County Republican, and a super-stupendous president for the E.F.A.O.T.G., remarked that the Hiwasseean was a "grand 'ole mixture of whop-de-do news and home town gossip. The Hiwasseean reports on events ranging from Watergate (on which they did a fantabledableulous job of identifying the little Dutch boy who had his finger in the dyke) to Mrs. Barker's fallen biscuits.

It was the unanimous opinion of the E.F.A.O.T.G. Club that the Hiwasseean was a super-groovy newspaper.

When contacted by the UPI, the AP, and Campus Spots, Mr. Conlie Rasnake, the newspaper's sponsor, had only praise for the staff.

"I have only praise for the staff," he said.

When contacted by the UPI, the AP, and Campus Spots, the staff agreed.

This is the sixteenth year in a row that the Hiwasseean has won the Pulitzer Prize.

Robert Newton, one of the co-editors, attributed the newspaper's remarkable success to the fact that the Hiwasseean is the epitome of the perfect newspaper. "It puts everybody's name and picture in it," he explained. Gee Gee Stewart, the other co-editor, was quick to add, "Sometimes it is hard for some people to pick themselves out from a photo of the North American continent, but at least they can't complain that we are biased as to whose picture gets in the most."

It seems to be almost everybody's opinion that the Hiwasseean is the perfect newspaper. It prints funny, dumb little stories, dumb little stories, and little stories. It makes swell linings for our bird cages and OK paper airplanes. You expand our minds and bog our eyes. You give Readers Digest something worth printing.

Hiwasseean . . . we, the people, love you.

Our Gracious Leaders

It was announced today that the members of the Hiwasseean had won the Pulitzer Prize for small papers. In an interview with Mr. Rasnake, the sponsor of the paper, he said that the prize was indeed an honor. He went on to say that he attributed the prize to the hard working, industrious, creative, ingenious, staff and that they had showed the greatest amount of intestinal fortitude in their spartan labors. The Hiwasseean shall never be the same.

Life Service Group Strengthens religious Activity on our campus

This group included all students who had made a decision to go into a full-time church-related vocation. Their club purpose was three-fold: (1) for spiritual growth of its members; (2) to bring together in Christian fellowship those who have dedicated their life to Christian service; (3) to be a service organization on the campus.

Sportsmen Club Members unite to Share an interest

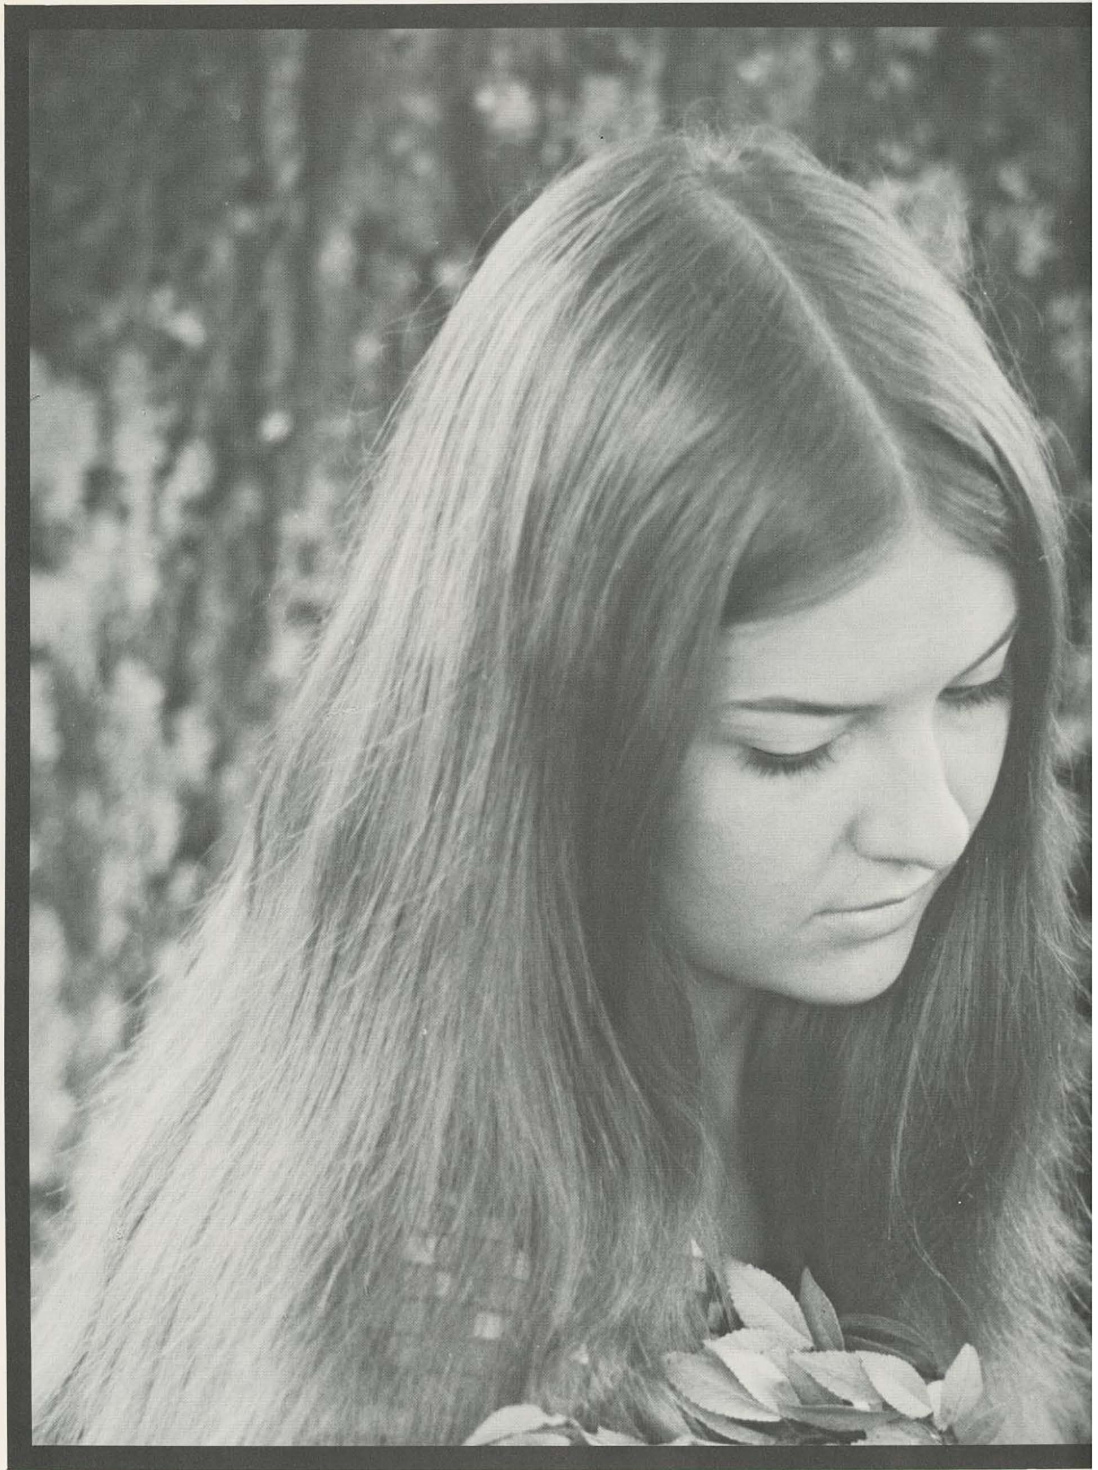

Special interest organizations allowed students to participate in activities with people who shared a common interest. The Sportsman Club was no exception as the members (below) were those interested in different sports. Guns were a particularly common theme (right).

Campus Spots become a part of Hiwassee

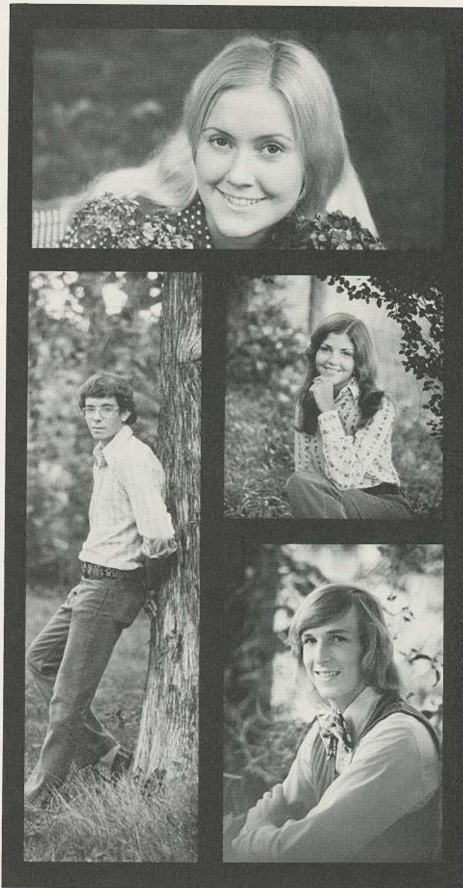

Beginning its first year of service here at Hiwassee, Campus Spots, the bi-weekly news service, proved to be a popular success. Under the guidance of their sponsor, Mr. Ken Yamada, the Campus Spots news team brought the highlights of campus life before the students via television. To aid in this, monitor stations in Brock Hall, the Industrial Arts building and Rymer Cafeteria were added to complete the HC-TV network.

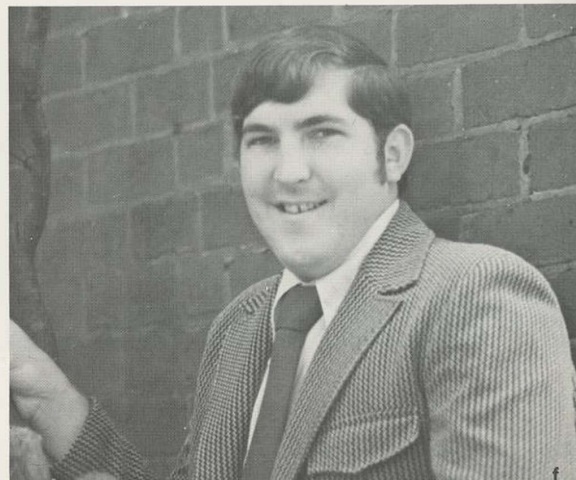

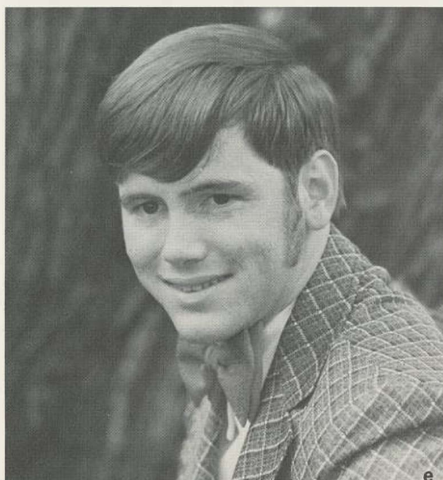

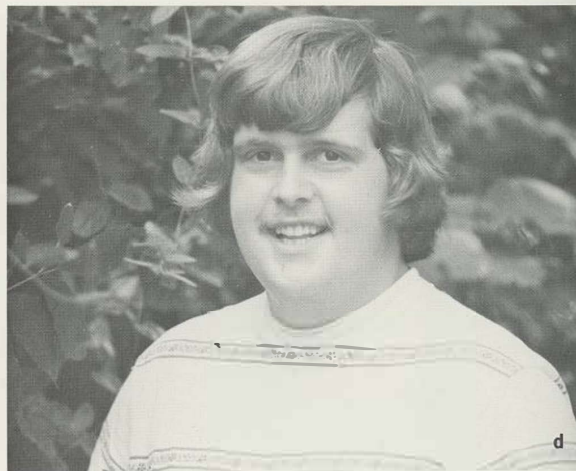

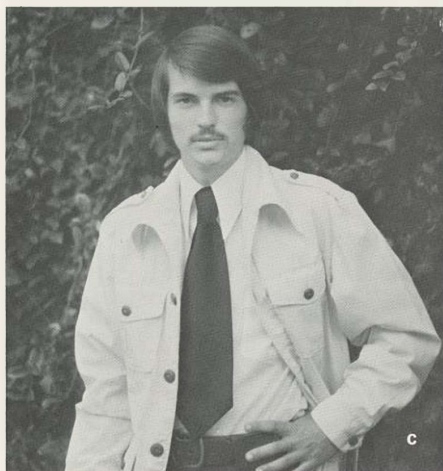

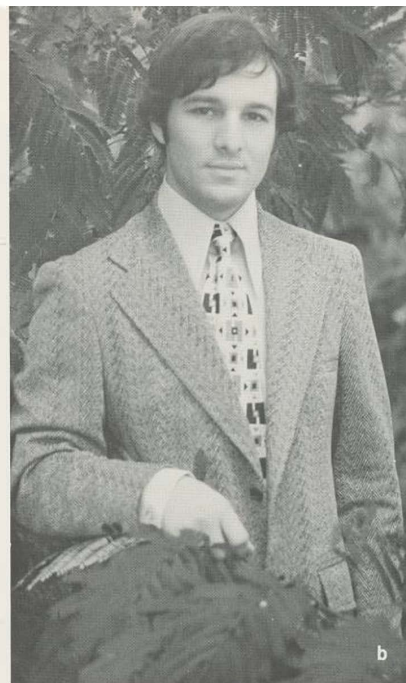

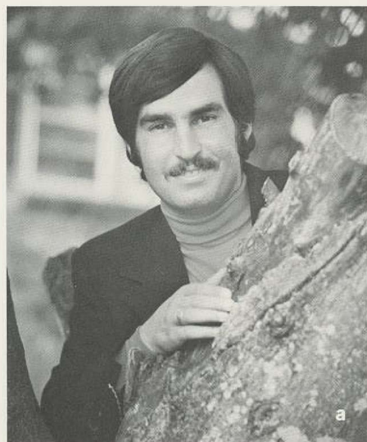

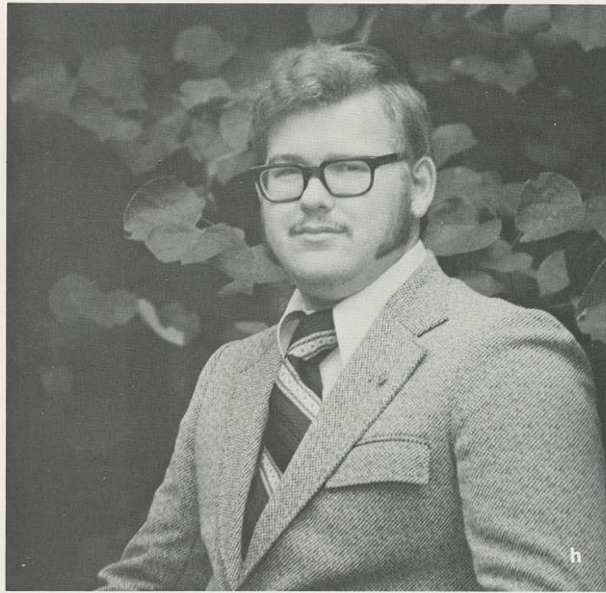

PEOPLE

From Tennessee and Virginia and Florida and New York and Iowa — From Jordan and Iran and Japan and Malaysia — From many other states and nations came Hiwassee's "beautiful people." Each was unique; each found no simple formula for getting to know himself and others. It was the year and the place of becoming.

Class officers Provide leadership

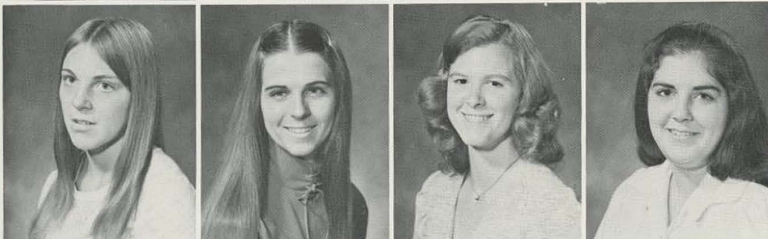

Class elections created interest as students were nominated and votes were cast. Sophomore officers quickly "took over" the office of the president as plans were made for spring quarter fun and frolic. Freshman officers were busy launching the class of '75 and keeping bewildered freshmen on course throughout the initial year of their college experience.

Tribute to Bonnie Presnell

On Monday morning, December 17, 1973 at the International Airport in Rome, Italy, a group of terrorists brought to an end the lives of 32 persons on board a Pan American aircraft. One of those persons was a beloved student at Hiwassee College — Bonnie Presnell of Greenback, Tennessee. Her tragic death left a pall of gloom on the college campus and on January 3, 1974, a memorial service was conducted in the college chapel. It was a moving worship service within the bittersweet shadows of her memory.

Her friends among the student body, the faculty and staff, the girls basketball team — all share the grief of the Presnell family. She is missed by all who knew her. Who can forget the easy friendly way she had. Who can forget that mischievous smile, her mirth and humor. She had lived such a full life and her zest for living was apparent. The memories that are cherished in the hearts of all who knew her are like a lingering warm summer breeze.

The college life moves on — bowed low — but moving on bathed in the radiance of that life which has been lived before us.

Let us determine to cram into every day's existence the greatest zest for life that we can, and our lives, under God, can bring to us and all we meet the greatest kind of joy!

—W. David Lewis, Chaplain of the College

The 1974 Yearbook Staff would like to gratefully acknowledge Bill Stoess, yearbook representative, and Lewis McCrary, school photographer, for their concern and assistance. We are especially grateful to Mrs. Margaret Sheets, yearbook advisor, for her un-failing help and encouragement. We would also like to thank the faculty, administration, and student body for their help and cooperation. We have tried to capture a few memories of Hiwassee students loving, playing, working, and worshiping. For us, this year was a time and a place of becoming.
